Edward Shepperd is seriously ill at his home on Union street.

Dr. William Bowman of Tollesboro was Memorial Doctor at Higginsport.

Mr. S. J. Merritt, a prominent Minister of the Kentucky Conference, formerly located at Tollesboro, is dead.

Marie Decca at the Auditorium.

Marie Decca, she of the wonderful, clarion voice and queenly carriage, was more charming and tuneful than ever, if such were possible. She sang an aria from Bellini's "La Sonnambula" and Donizetti's famous "Cavatina." Of course encores were demanded and one of those given was "Robbin Adair." It is as easy for Marie Decca to sing as for any of the feathered songsters, and the peculiar feature of her singing is that when one is just ready to conclude that she has trilled her highest note, she tosses her head and disappoints by going two or three higher.

KICKERS KICKING.

Auditor L. Ed. Pearce May Not Be Seated at Lexington.

L. Ed. Pearce's newly appointed Auditor, Mr. L. Ed. Pearce formerly of Maysville, may not be seated because of ineligibility.

The city charter prohibits any man from serving as Auditor of Lexington who has not been a resident of that city for five years next preceding his appointment.

It seems that Mr. Pearce was a citizen of Jessamine County in 1892, and as such voted in the North Keeney Precinct in the November election of 1892.

Mr. Pearce was appointed Auditor by Mayor Simm a few days ago to succeed Auditor B. J. Welsh, who died in Cincinnati last week before last.

SUDDEN SUMMONS.

The Death at Washington of Mrs. Rev. W. T. Spears.

Mr. Rev. W. T. Spears died at her home in Washington Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

She, with her husband, was in this city as late as 4 o'clock, and persons who saw her then dreamed that they should never see her in the flesh.

She had been in bad health for some months, but was thought by her husband and friends to be much improved. She had eaten a hearty dinner and come to the city for a ride, and on nearing home had expressed herself as feeling strong and much benefited by the exercise, but she hadn't been out of her buggy more than ten minutes until she was a corpse. She had been seized with a sudden spell of coughing and broke a blood vessel and died from strangulation.

Her husband has the sympathies of the entire community in his irreparable loss.

Only a week since he received word of the death of his only sister and relative, and now the partner of all his joys and sorrows has gone on that journey whence no one returns.

Mrs. Spears was in her 49th year, and was born at New Market, Tenn., but had made her home for years at Bristol, that state, whence she will likely be taken for interment.

She was a devoted Christian worker, and will be greatly missed by the church and the community in which her lot was cast.

No one could exceed her in acts of kindness and attention in cases of sickness or death, but the hand that was ever ready to bestow is now cold in death.

The funeral will take place from the Presbyterian Church at Washington Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with services by the Rev. S. D. Boggs of Calisburg, assisted by the Rev. W. O. Cochran of this city.

MORE MAYSVILLE MEN.

They Achieve Distinction at the Staunton Military Institute.

The following, taken from a report of the "Staunton Military Institute Finals," as published in the Staunton Daily News, shows with what credit Messrs. Thomas and James Hall of this city acquitted themselves.

"After receiving certificates of proficiency in studies, the S. M. A. Glee Club, of which they are members, was spoken of as having made quite a hit, being forced to respond to an encore both times they appeared on the program; their voices blending nicely; the minor notes being exceedingly well rendered, J. Hall, Kable and T. Hall's voices being the best.

"The instrumental quartette, composed of Mr. Hall, Royal and Green, rendered several selections in a very pleasing manner.

"The spirited competitive drill was a thrilling and exciting contest. Eight candidates presented themselves, and as each made a mistake they were requested to withdraw, Royal and Hall being the last two on the floor. Royal is six feet two inches in height while Hall is five feet two inches, and the contrast was very amusing. In the presence of a large crowd they performed with great skill, the only sound heard being the sharp command of Captain Kable. At the close, deafening applause greeted the contestants."

FUNNY—VERY!

A "Smart Alick" Engineer Causes a Serious Accident.

The engine-driver of "Flyer" No. 3 of the C. and O. deserves a leather medal—or strap.

As the train was on the Front street head blew out.

Of course this disabled the engine, and the yard engine was sent for to push the train to the station.

While the train stood on the viaduct a crowd of eight-seats gathered on the tracks.

With perhaps fifty people standing within a few yards of the engine, some one in the cab turned on the steam, which came in great volume from the headless cylinder.

There was a "scattering," one burly Negro cutting a swath through the crowd, shoving people "right, left and onward."

Among the spectators was Mr. W. C. Sly, a schoolteacher from West Union, O., who had been here on business for several days.

The frightened darky ran against Mr. Sly with such force that he was thrown from the viaduct, falling about ten feet to the hard street below.

His right wrist was dislocated, his face bruised, and he was otherwise shaken up.

He was carried into the Grandview Hotel and Drs. Harover and Owens dressed the injuries, which are painful though not dangerous.

In the first place, persons not in the employ of the Railway Company have no right on the viaduct.

From the fact that they are there it doesn't follow that an employee of the company possesses any moral or legal right to kill or cripple them.

No doubt the fellow who turned on the steam did it for a "joke," without any thought of the serious result that might follow.

There are jokers, however, that are not funny just a little bit.

Seth L. Speath of Augusta has been granted a pension.

The workman often eats his lunch on the same bench where he does his work. The office manager turns his desk into a dinner-table. Neither gets the door ajar.

Even the tax collector takes for eating. It is small wonder that the digestion of both gets out of order.

In such cases Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pill Pectoral is the remedy by aiding nature in taking care of the trouble.

The cause of nine-tenths of the sickness of the world is constipation.

From this one cause come indigestion, disorders of the stomach, rheumatism, biliousness, heartburn, impurity of the blood and the serious complications that follow.

WAR WHOOP!

"The Injuns Won't Do a Thing to Maysville!"

NEXT THURSDAY EVENING.

The Local Tribe and Many Visitors Will Go on the Trail.

CRAWL UNDER COVER!

The Chiefs of Wyandotte Tribe, I. O. R. M., of this city will paralyze the Paleface of Maysville next Thursday night.

There will be a "Trail," beginning at 8 o'clock and ending only when the throat of the last "Injun" is too sore to give the warwhoop.

Those who participate will be on horseback, while every citizen who can get out of doors will be footback.

One of the features of the occasion will be the capture of a Paleface and a "hair raising" on the Market Street plaza.

The Bradyville Tribe will be here 50 strong, 38 of whom will be mounted—on borrowed horses.

Augusta is coming in a special car and the local Tribe will meet the visitors at the C. and O. Station at 7:30 and form the Trail which will scout the principal streets.

The Trail will be led by Thomas M. Russell as the Great Giasticutus—aided by several thousand "guys" on the side walks.

Grandparents are warned to put the little children in the cellar.

Timid ladies will view the procession from darkened rooms and through the shutter-slats.

Bicyclists are especially requested not to monkey with the buzzaw.

In connection with the Trail THE LEDGER is permitted to print the following letter:

AUGUSTA, KY., May 30th, 1896

Mr. T. M. Russell, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Chief and Brother.

All arrangements are now completed. We have secured a special coach of C. and O. Railroad Co. and will leave here at 7:30 the evening of June 4th and arrive at your city at 7:30 C. and O. Railroad.

Returning, will leave Maysville at 1:30 a. m. over C. and O. Railroad.

Sixty-six (66) of my boys have signed their intention of coming, and I think we need another 100.

When we start, there will be about 70 of us.

Thirty-eight (38) of us will bring costumes prepared to ride in trail.

I know of that many now.

Will probably be a few more in costume; but if there is, we can double up on the horses.

Everything at this end of the line is in working order.

Hill Hi! Hill! Ka! Ah! The Indians will do a thing to Maysville!

Awaiting with much pleasure this

If I required an annual outlay of $100 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; but if you are a man of means, with a wife and children, and those of your family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. You can afford to take the risk for so small an amount. For sale by J. J. Wood Druggist.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

BRADLEY!

Kentucky's Own Son for President.

BRADLEY'S CURRENCY PLATFOM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy all National prosperity. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and believe it can best be protected by holding its issue in such bounds as will insure its parity with gold as a circulating medium."

W. O. BRADLEY.

Even the whisky business is not exempt from the blessings of Free-trade. The W. G. Taylor Distillery Company of Cyathiana has made an assignment.

It is now absolutely certain that 13 is an unlucky number. The 13 Mason county Democratic goldbug Delegates went know "where they are at" when the free silverites have done with them at the Lexington Convention.

Our friends the enemy ought now to be happy. Saturday while a Republican orator at Disterich's Park was eulogizing the Confederate soldiery, the Democratic Convention at the Court-house was "resolving" that Governor BRADLEY and his friends were the biggest rascals in the state. Now will you be good?

The Mason county Democrats present an "honest" front because they were dishonest. If they had permitted Precinct Conventions throughout the county the "goldbugs" would have been buried "out of sight" by the free silverites. The Mass Convention is the club with which the bosses beat the life out of the popular will.

It is estimated by City Assessor Murphy that about $2,000,000 worth of property in Louisville will be exempt from taxation hereafter under the decision of the Court of Appeals relieving all of the charitable and educational institutions of the state from taxation.

The Court holds that the Baptist Theological Seminary and similar institutions which own property other than the buildings in use for schools, are not compelled to pay taxes on this property, although they rent it out for profit.

In regard to the Nazareth Society it is held by the Court that the St. Joseph Infirmary and the Loretto Academy owned by it are exempt, because the Sisters of Charity who conduct these institutions devote their lives to charity.

and what they get in the way of pay from the well-to-do goes to the education or care of the poor.

The Baptist Theological Seminary has authority under its charter to acquire property to the value of $2,000,000, and under this decision it cannot be taxed. The same applies, but to a smaller extent, to the Nazareth Institutions and to the St. Xavier College, which are held to be purely educational or benevolent institutions.

This decision gives these institutions more privileges than they ever enjoyed under the old Constitution, which was considered very liberal in such cases.

THE LEDGER's contention always has been for the taxation of every species of property, not excepting even church buildings.

It believes in an equal sharing of the public burden, but for the present, at least so far as Kentucky is concerned, millions of property owned by and conducted in the name of "benevolent" and "charitable" institutions is to be exempt from any part of the taxation necessary to support the state.

This being so, THE LEDGER insists upon the exemption of property of Masons, Oddfellows, Knights of Pythias and all kind fraternal and benevolent Orders.

In Mayville alone these Orders spend thousands of dollars annually for the relief of distress and for the education of orphans. Their entire income is devoted to the purposes of doing good to their fellow-men—the very highest type of "benevolence."

Surely, they ought to be placed on the same plane as other "benevolent" and "charitable" institutions.

Mothers will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy especially valuable for croaking children. It will give prompt relief and is safe and pleasant. Hechingher & Co occupy a whole page of today's LEXEMER; but then it takes a large space to tell of the unparalleled bargains they are offering. Never before in the history of the clothing trade has good clothes been so cheap. The reputation of Hechingher is so well known that it goes without saying that his goods are just as advertised.

Chamblain Stabbed in the Heart. BOWLING GREEN, Ky., June 2.—Abel Shuck, a Chinese laundryman, was found dead in his laundry Monday. He had been murdered. His face was badly beaten, the nose being broken. A large pair of scissors had been thrust into his brain. They had been withdrawn from the wound and placed in Shuck's trousers.

A Bank at Burkesville. BURKEVILLE, Ky., June 2.—Mr. J. P. Frank, one of the best known and most successful business men in this place, is preparing to go into the banking business. His brother, W. H. Frank, with whom he dry-goods business, Mr. Frank's bank will be situated in the heart of the town, and the building is now under way.

Storm Damage in Caldwell County. PRINCETON, Ky., June 2.—The heavy and incessant rain-storms have done great damage to the crops in this country. Acres of corn have been washed away, and many trees and houses are completely drowned out. The oldest citizens do not remember of such a heavy rainfall in May.

Fans Purse Will be Hanged Up. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 2.—The Louisville Fair and Driving association has decided that the purse will be hanged up during its fair to be presented for its final meeting. There will be ten fixed events, none of which are for less than $500, the principal ones being for $1,000.

Robbers Raided by Thieves. FULLERTON, Ky., June 2.—This place where the slaves were enslaved, and many negroes were born, and two gold watches and considerable money was lost. The thieves stole two fine horses from Joseph Davis and made good their escape.

Gold Damaged. HORSESHOE SPRINGS, Ky., June 2.—While crossing the east fork of Little River Monday Lucien Jenkins had the buggy containing himself and family swept away in the swollen stream. All were saved except the youngest child, which was lost.

Trouble Among Lexington Orphans. LEXINGTON, Ky., June 2.—The usual sensation is brewing in Lexington municipal affairs. This time the mayor and police commission have come together in the ears, and all sorts of excitement are to be expected.

STORM'S WORK

In the Towns and Villages in Missouri and Illinois.

A Threatened Storm Gave the People of St. Louis a Terrible Fright.

It Passed Away, However, Without Damage—The Number of Missing People Increasing—Precautions Taken to Prevent Vandals.

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—Shortly before two o'clock Monday morning the two stroke cities, St. Louis and East St. Louis, were visited by a high-seas storm, coming up from the south, accompanied by low rumbling thunder and almost continuous flashes of lightning. Then a few minutes later big black clouds appeared on the northern horizon, rolling up into a dazzling rain that covered the city. There was considerable wind, though nothing approaching a hurricane or tornado. The elemental disturbance lasted for nearly an hour and then subsided, a short downpour, which had increased to a downpour at ten o'clock Monday morning.

The work of clearing away the ruins is being carried on in a more systematic manner, but the rain makes the work of the men difficult.

Prof. Bunting, an expert insurance adjuster, of Chicago, is in the city, and, after looking over the field, he said the total loss will foot up over $20,000,000. Prof. Bunting has adjusted the losses caused by the tornado about two years ago.

A mass meeting of citizens has been called for Tuesday afternoon to consider the advisability of appealing for outside aid for the relief of the storm sufferers.

One of the peculiar features of the storm is the appalling list of missing persons reported to police headquarters. Up to Monday evening 134 persons are still unaccounted missing. The police are inclined to believe that many of these will be found with relatives in other portions of the city.

The situation in East St. Louis is one of gloom and despair. There is some fear of an epidemic of disease among the homeless near the river. Under the ruins is a vast quantity of decaying animal and vegetable matter which is sending pestilential clouds up through the debris. The people are weak from exposure and exertion and are in no condition to fight the malaria that is breeding on the island. Another problem is the almost unanimous refusal of the owners to leave their belongings and cross the military tanks which have been placed at Brighton. In spite of the presence of the militia they fear that their goods are safe only so long as they remain under their earthly belongings.

Chief of Police Ganey has taken extreme precautions to prevent vandalism and early Monday morning 150 tramps were rounded up and driven out of town.

No additions are reported to the death list up to ten o'clock Monday morning.

Known dead in St. Louis, 196; unknown in St. Louis, 8; fatal injuries in St. Louis, 1; fatal injuries in St. Louis, 117; known dead in East St. Louis, 3; fatally injured in East St. Louis, 2. Total fatality, 493.

The champion of the four relief districts established in the southern portion of St. Louis, each received $5,000 from headquarters Monday morning for immediate distribution. Such clothing and supplies as were at hand were divided among the wagons and sent to the district headquarters, there to be given out as called for.

What is needed most is shoes, bandage cloths, children's clothing and ladies' underwear. Necessary furniture and household articles of all kinds are also much called for. The additional damage of continuous wet weather resulted in the issuing of another order to all firms to the operation of any electric lights in the districts south of Elm and west of the levee.

At several points in the ruined district the people of the neighborhood claim there are bodies under the debris. The search for these has been discontinued, but the search over the bodies of the dead is still continued. Numerous additional bodies have been recovered from the ruins up to one o'clock Monday afternoon either in or east of St. Louis. The death rate at the hospital, both civilian and military, increased since Saturday and the injured are reported doing as well as can be expected.

The funerals of 127 tornado victims in St. Louis have been held so far and it is estimated that at least twenty more were interred Monday afternoon.

The extent of the tornado's disastrous work here and in East St. Louis has overshadowed the losses sustained in adjacent areas in Missouri and Illinois, and no accurate lists of the killed has been made. A careful compilation from all sources made Monday gives the following losses in outlying towns by the tornado:

Missouri, outside of St. Louis:

Estimated Property
Killed Injured
Randall..... 10 86,000
Clark..... 10 86,000
Longview..... 10 86,000
Fairfax..... 1 15 15,000
Dye School House..... 5 8,000
Caryville..... 5 8,000
Vanderbilt..... 10 20,000
Bear Creek..... 7 55,000
Total..... 16 133 416,000

The total losses in Randolph and Audrain counties will amount to $90,000 additional. Losses on crop and farm property in entire state will swell total beyond $2,000,000.

Illinois outside of East St. Louis:

	Killed	Injured	Estimated Property
Breckinridge	3	3	$18,000
Burke	6	20	20,000
Morgan	1	1	20,000
New Minden	8	30	70,000
New Baden	15	30	5,000
Deerfield	3	10	15,000
Richview	3	25	75,000
Irvington	5	20	20,000
High Hill	1	7	7,000
Total	49	172	$355,000

Losses at scores of other points, including farm property and crops, may raise the total to over $1,000,000.

THE KILLED.—John Bunting was taken from the ruins of his factory at Broadway and Soulard streets Monday afternoon. His wife and three children, barely escaped death in their home at 2409 South Broadway.

The remains of an unknown white man were taken from the river at the foot of Tesson street Monday. The man was found lying on the bank of a stone anchored near that point, and from the position of the body it is surmised that the deceased was blown into the river during the tornado and tried to save himself by clinging to the stone.

The work of searching the ruins goes steadily forward.

That a great many corpses are in the ruins that have not been recovered by the police has been surmised. Some of them may turn up, of course, but it is safe to assume that the major portion of them are dead.

A number of them are probably in the houses that have been destroyed. The police are inclined to believe that many of these will be found with relatives in other portions of the city.

The situation in East St. Louis is one of gloom and despair. There is some fear of an epidemic of disease among the homeless near the river. Under the ruins is a vast quantity of decaying animal and vegetable matter which is sending pestilential clouds up through the debris.

Such clothing and supplies as were at hand were divided among the wagons and sent to the district headquarters, there to be given out as called for.
